WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

Next Sunday is World Mission Sunday, a day when we, together with all the Catholics around the globe unite in prayer and generosity for the Church's missionary work. This year's theme, One in Christ, United in Mission, chosen by Pope Leo XIV, invites us to rediscover the profound unity we share in Christ Through baptism and how our baptismal missionary identity overflows into the mission of the Church to bring all creatures into communion with God and us. The beatification of Archbishop Fulton Sheen on September 24 was a great gift to the Church in the United States. While many know him for his TV presence, books, and charismatic eloquence, he repeatedly said, "my greatest love has always been for the missions of the Church." Next week, the World Mission Collection will help the Holy Father to extend the Church's missionary work to places where the gospel has never been heard before and where the Church is too young, too persecuted, or too poor to sustain herself. Next week, please place a Mission Envelope with your offertory envelope in the collection basket.
